History of Jacques Pepin Fast Food My Way

Founded in 2018 by culinary entrepreneur Jacques Pepin, the brand began as a single pop up stall in a bustling urban food market. Pepin, who previously worked as a sous chef in Michelin starred restaurants, noticed a gap in the market: fast food that didn't sacrifice quality for convenience. He wanted to create a place where diners could enjoy restaurant grade flavors without the wait.

After a successful pilot run, the concept expanded to a permanent storefront in 2020. Within two years, the brand had opened six locations across the city, each featuring a modern, open concept kitchen that allows customers to watch their meals being prepared. By 2023, Jacques Pepin Fast Food My Way had franchised its first out of state location and launched a nationwide delivery partnership with major platforms.

Menu Philosophy: Fresh, Flavorful, and Flexible

The menu is designed around a few core principles: freshness, flavor, and flexibility. Each dish is built from scratch using ingredients that are either locally sourced or imported from trusted suppliers. The brand offers a wide array of proteins—grilled chicken, lean beef, plant based patties, and even smoked fish—paired with whole grain buns, artisan breads, or lettuce wraps.

Signature Sandwiches

1. The Classic Reuben – Corned beef, Swiss cheese, sauerkraut, and Russian dressing on rye.
2. BBQ Pulled Pork – Slow cooked pork shoulder, tangy BBQ sauce, coleslaw, and a brioche bun.
3. Veggie Delight – Grilled portobello, hummus, avocado, roasted peppers, and spinach on a whole grain roll.

Build Your Own Bowls

For those seeking a lighter option, the bowls are a hit. Customers can choose a base—brown rice, quinoa, or mixed greens—add a protein, toss in seasonal vegetables, and finish with a signature sauce. Popular combinations include:

- Chicken Teriyaki Bowl: Grilled chicken, teriyaki glaze, edamame, and rice.
- Spicy Falafel Bowl: Falafel, tahini sauce, cucumber, tomato, and lettuce.
- Beef & Broccoli Bowl: Sautéed beef, broccoli, garlic sauce, and quinoa.

Wraps and Salads

Wraps are a convenient on the go option, featuring options like the Mediterranean Wrap (hummus, feta, olives, and greens) and the Southwest Chicken Wrap (chipotle sauce, black beans, corn, and lettuce). Salads range from simple Caesar to the signature "Garden Fresh" with mixed greens, nuts, and a vinaigrette.

Sweet & Savory Sides

Beyond the main courses, the menu includes a variety of sides: baked sweet potato fries, classic French fries, mozzarella sticks, and a seasonal fruit cup. Desserts are kept light, with options such as yogurt parfaits, fresh fruit tarts, and a rotating selection of artisanal pastries.

Ordering Experience: From App to Counter

Jacques Pepin Fast Food My Way has invested heavily in technology to streamline the ordering process. Customers can place orders via a dedicated mobile app, website, or at the in store kiosk. The app features a “Build Your Meal” wizard that guides users through ingredient selection, ensuring a seamless experience.

Once the order is placed, the kitchen’s smart display system alerts chefs to prepare the meal. The brand’s “Fast Track” system guarantees that every order is served within 10 minutes, even during peak hours. For delivery, the app offers real time tracking, so customers know exactly when their meal will arrive.

Location Strategy: Urban, Suburban, and Beyond

Jacques Pepin Fast Food My Way’s first stores opened in high traffic urban centers, targeting office workers, students, and food conscious commuters. As the brand grew, it expanded into suburban neighborhoods, positioning outlets near schools and shopping centers to capture family traffic.
